ON THE INSIDE WITH

MEMORIES of firesides crackling,
Thoughts of the Loved Ones there,
Bright-eyed, trampling the snow fields
Or breasting the wintry air,
Come to the Isthmian Pilgrim
Keeping Christmastide here
Where sleet and ice are strangers,
Where orchids bloom all the year.

Warm is our Christmas noon sun,
Balmy our vesper breeze,
Fragrant our Yuletide flowers,
Verdant our Festal trees,
And warm is this Christmas Message
To Cherished Friend over the seas:
May the Maker of All watch o'er thee
And gladden our Memories.

Greetings from the Caribbean Canal

Think of Me while I Think of You
Friend so Far, so Long, so True;
Think of Old Times, Think of New,
Think of Him Who Guides Us Through.
Bury Sorrow, Enter Fear,
Chase Depression, Joy is near:
Bells are Pealing Christmas Cheer
Keep this Spirit All New Year.

The Panama Canal.

Christmas Greetings
from
The Panama Canal

Mighty ocean steamers
Plow the pretty Lane—
Twixt a mountain chain—
Skating forest jungles,
Sailing tranquilly
High above two oceans,
Calm as Galilee.

Never is it frozen,
Never tempests beat,
Never does the snow fly,
Never chills the fleet,
Always is it peaceful
Even in the rain—
Land of nodding palm fronds,
Southern Cross and wain.

Land of tropic splendor,
Land of virgin soil,
Pillar hearts beat briskly here
Skilled in robust toil
Speeding steel-and-monsters,
Off to Pinarol laden
With wealth from far-off Tartary,
Greenland, Spirey, Aden.

Pilgrims speed these to thee:
Staps and goods and wealth,
Wishes best and Christmas cheer,
Happiness and health—
Pilgrims speed them daily
Through this pretty Lane,
High above two oceans,
Twixt a mountain chain.
