

a year will soon pass over I don't think I shall ever go away again - this going from home, after all is not what it is cracked up to be, tho' when I get fairly settled I shall feel contented again I trust.
I fancy you quite lonely this week - & again wish you must keep me informed of all your doings, for I feel as if I was still chief manager only away for a few minutes - I had just been to the come in this upon I am going out to dinner this aft. to come in on the roof - I have been helping them arrange affairs for the new theatre in I should have sent this but was - I want if Mary Clark can bring my thick sided newspapers when she comes you will send them without fail - for they have snow enough in Pottsville to need them. I send my little kid testament like yours I like to the first time you write draw the pattern of your arlock bag the size for, via tissue paper I send it in a letter for I want to have it in before I come - It is really cool & wonder a quarter of a century - I wish you could be coming the same with me.
I shall not need go to Pottsville till Monday I am - I hope for a letter very soon - direct next to Pottsville care of St. M. Walker & write me everything - I have just seen a very pretty pair of gaiters made of leather shoes It cost me $4.50 for N.Y. here - cab & all.
