If I could save the Union without freeing any slave, I would do it; and if I could save it by freeing all the slaves, I would do it; and if I could save it by freeing some and leaving others alone, I would also do that.

Dear Grace: I hope I have not sent you a card like this before. This isn't a bit pretty, but it is all I have today. No I do not play "Ben Hur Chariot March." I will try and get it one of these days. I hope you get your piano soon. I don't know how I could get along without ours. A signet ring was a lovely present for you and your sister to give Herman. My little sister will graduate from the eight grade next year and I will graduate from high S. in 1911. Mamma's brother from the east is visiting now, and he and papa are picking cherries this morning. I have been helping them pack some for shipping. I wish you were here to sit on the porch with me and help me eat some.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY SERIES, NO. 1

Miss Lettie Ross
Shepherds Town
Cumberland County
Pa

This side for the Address only

The First Reading of the Emancipation Proclamation before the Cabinet, September 22nd, 1862.

The original was painted by Mr. F. ... carpenter in the State Dining Room of the White House, between February 3 and August 1, 1864, under the eye and with the kindly help of President Lincoln. Secretary Chas. wrote: "Mr. Lincoln before reading his manuscript of the Proclamation said in substance: 'I have considered everything that has been said to me about the expediency of emancipa-tion, and have made up my mind to issue this Proclamation, and I have invited you to come together, not to discuss what is to be done, but to have you hear what I have written and to give your suggestions about form and style.' Adding:
'I have thought it all over and have made a promise that this should be done to myself and God!' Before he affixed his signature to the Proclamation, Lincoln said: "I never in my life felt more certain that I was doing right than I do in signing this paper. But I have been receiving calls and shaking hands since nine o'clock this morning till my arm is stiff and numb. Now, this signature is one that will be closely examined and if they find my hand trembled they will say: 'He had some compunctions,' but anyway it is going to be done!" The Proclamation was signed and issued January 1, 1863.

THE ADDRESS OF THE RECIPIENT

Mrs M. & I received the very announcement. I reply for both.
Am glad you had Mr S. in your town. Came here the 1st.
Everything very quiet so far and alone in the place. Suppose the hot wave reached you:
we enjoyed it here - I hope July will bring many visitors - With love. E. C.

Dear Kid; - another dandy walk I took to day out the cale done a ~~road~~ beautiful I think I covered at least two miles in wandering around hunting chestnuts, but I am as tired as an old dog. I didn't ask if mother knew Annie Kerr. I asked if she knew Kathleen that lived at Cas-mans about 20 y. ago. I think the girls ought to be able to buy all I asked to have bought at Middletown. No. 6 suit I am glad Harold is learning to work so well, he can help me at much more when I come home next of spring.
 I don't know when I'll come home, they say you should take 30 doses of ukradin & that would take me until the latter part of March, but perhaps I will be cured before that I hope so anyway. I hope you can come up next week or might get too cold for us to walk or be might get a head quack or look of too close

FORT AMSTERDAM "NOW THE BATTERY" IN KIEFT'S DAYS

In 1632, Governor Minuet was recalled and succeeded by Von Twiller, who again was succeeded by Wm. Kieft in 1637. Kieft was recalled for cruelty in 1646. The gallant Peter Stuyvesant, who had lost a leg in the service of his country, was elected Director General of New Netherland in 1647.

HENRY HUDSON A Dutchman known to history only in the four years, 1607-11. Cast adrift by a mutinous crew left to perish in Hudson Bay, 1611. Made four voyages to America. Sailed from Amsterdam on third voyage, April 14th, 1609, in the "Half Moon." Anchored inside New York Bay September 3d. September 12th entered the Hudson and reached the present site of Albany September 19th. Sailed for England October 4th, and arrived at Dartmouth November 7th. This voyage led directly to the settlement of New York City.

CORRESPONDENCE ADDRESS

Baltimore

U.S.A.
Jan 12 1910

Dear Auguste:
I am sending you two post cards to-day. Perhaps I have already sent you cards with the same scenes. ~~but~~ I am not sure. Our cards are very unattractive in comparison with the beautiful Egyptian cards. My best regards to you all.
Your sincere friend, C.C.B.
